

Concentrated media ownership is a huge threat to American democracy. Local outlets need accurate, balanced news information, not partisan propaganda disguised as a documentary.

It would set an ominous precedent to allow Sinclair Broadcasting to pre-empt regular programming for what amounts to a full length political attack ad.

The public airwaves, which Sinclair is using free of charge, should never be used in this manner.